

SLOW ART

DAY AT NBWM

01

Pick any artwork that interests you →

02

Challenge yourself to look at that artwork for 5 minutes - set a timer and allow yourself to slow down →

03

Need some direction? Consider the questions and ways of looking below ↓

After 1 minute:

What is going on in this artwork?
Where does your eye go first? Why?

After 2 minutes:

What confuses you about this artwork?
If the artist was here with you, what questions would you ask?

After 3 minutes:

Think of someone that you would want to share this artwork with, why does this person come to mind?

After 4 minutes:

Take a look at the artwork from a different angle (close up, far away, create a viewfinder by rolling up this piece of paper, etc.)

How does this change your experience of the artwork?

After 5 minutes:

What would you title this work? Why? Now look at the label. How is the title similar or different than the one you came up with?

Hear from the Artist

After you explore the artwork on your own, listen to the artist Jeffery Becton and his wife, Hillary, discuss the work featured in the exhibition on our Bloomberg Connects Guide.
